Founded 1986

In a market characterized by increasing competition and constant change, we and our subsidiaries cover the entire range of efficient insurance consulting solutions and continue to successfully deliver innovative, flexible, and comprehensive services for companies and private entities.

Clients rely on our expertise in all aspects pertaining to insurance, finance, and law as well as our knowledge of the industrial sector.

With our 'client first' approach, we build trust through open and clear communication, streamlined processes and professional expertise with the right balance of insurance protection and cost.

Our employees receive regular training to uphold our high standards whilst remaining at the forefront of the insurance market.

Because of our large number of clients, we can obtain a price and quality of service far superior to the accepted market standard.
